HE HAS HOPE.

General Grant Now Said to Entertain the Hope of a Final Recovery.

Senator Chaffee Pronounces the Case Very Remarkable and Questions the Disease.

The St. Louis Murder Mystery Still Absorbs Attention in New York.

MARKED IMPROVEMENT.

General Grant Passes a Profitable Night, and Grows Stronger.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, April 16.—6:30 a. m.—General Grant has passed a very quiet night. The improved condition continues. He slept well and naturally for seven and a half hours. He is taking his nourishment well at longer intervals. He feels stronger, and his voice is improved.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

NEW YORK, April 16.—Senator Chaffee said, after leaving Grant's house this morning, that he considered General Grant's condition wonderful. "He seemed to me to look much better every way. His eyes were brighter than they have been for some time past. We spoke of the remarkable sympathy manifested by the people all over the country for the general in his affliction and he seems to be

VERY MUCH TOUGHENED.

There is one thing to be said about his throat, and that is, that no one can deny the fact that it was ulcerated very badly, but the question is whether it is cancer or not. If it is there is in my mind no hope for his life. If it is not cancer there is hope. He, I think, has now hopes of getting well."

GRANT SURPRISES THE FAMILY.

NEW YORK, April 16.—General Grant continues to improve. His throat was examined to-day by Dr. Barker, Shadley and Douglass and the local disease was found to have improved with the general condition. The pulse and temperature are unchanged. The general is feeling much better. He suddenly started down stairs and joined his family at lunch, taking everybody by surprise. He partook of some semi-solid food without difficulty, much to the delight of all.

A Catholic Promotion.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

PITTSBURG, April 16.—Rev. Father Phelan, vicar general of this diocese, has been appointed coadjutor to Bishop Twiss.

A Poor Agreement.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, April 16.—The east and west trunk lines have agreed on a traffic arrangement based on the gross tonnage.

STILL A MYSTERY.

The St. Louis Tragedy Attracts in New York.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, April 16.—The St. Louis tragedy continues to be the absorbing sensation. Frank Schlesinger, of the firm of H. S. Salomon & Co., is a cousin of Preller's and has been very intimate with him. Mr. Schlesinger took charge of Preller's letters while he was traveling and forwarded them to him on request. Preller spoke of Maxwell and said he had arranged to meet him in St. Louis on April 4. Preller telegraphed Mr. Schlesinger from St. Louis as follows:

"Kindly direct all matter to San Francisco." This is the last that has been heard from him. Business arrangements he had promised to make and which his friends believe he would have carried out, were he alive, have remained unattended to. "It is the fact that we have not heard from him for so long that suggests to me that the body found in the trunk must be that of my cousin," said Mr. Schlesinger yesterday, when the reporter asked him about the matter.

He has notified his relatives in England, as there seems to be some doubt about his murder. The young men were to have sailed for Australia on the steamer leaving San Francisco April 12. The British consul general said he knew nothing whatever about Maxwell, but his name was not found among the list of British baronets.

NOTHING NEW.

ST. LOUIS, April 16.—No date has been fixed for the inquest on the remains of Preller, and there are no new developments.

The Webster Road.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

ST. LOUIS, April 16.—Judge Brewer, of the United States circuit court, delivered an opinion on the application of the receivers of the Walsh road for an order allowing them to cease operating certain non paying leased lines. He refused the order but directed the receivers to pay no rent when not earned by the roads.

A Strike.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

BITFALL, N. Y., April 16.—All the employees of the Bankers' and Merchants' telegraph company, of this city, struck for back pay.

A Murderer Executed.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

BURNT, DAK., April 16.—J. H. Bell, who murdered F. G. Small, at Harrold, last December, was lynched last night at this place.

A Maniac's Horrible Crime.

BY Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

UTICA, N. Y., April 15.—George H. Humpf, a section hand on the New York Central road, killed his wife and four-days-old child near Indian Castle church, Herkimer county, on Monday and then committed suicide. He had been insane for several weeks and a watch had been placed over his actions. While in Germany he was betrothed to a widow with one child and after he came here he sent for them. On the arrival of his fiancee he discovered that she had, in the meantime, had smallpox and was badly pitted. This fact overcame his affection and he refused to marry her, but endeavored to compromise by wedding the daughter, which proposition the latter rejected. Subsequently Humpf went to Germany where he married his late wife. His former love and her daughter still live in this vicinity, and on Humpf's return with his bride his fellow-workmen began to harrass him with allusions to the widow. This was kept up and so preyed upon his mind as to induce insanity. He grew worse after the birth of his child and he was to have been removed to the asylum for the insane yesterday. On Monday, at 1 p. m., a neighbor, who was acting as guard, heard screams in the house and saw a peculiar flash of fire and in company with another man, broke into the house. The building was filled with sulphuric odor, which almost stilled the men, but they succeeded in making their way to Mrs. Humpf's bed room. They found the woman and child dying in great agony. The bed had been saturated with kerosene and fired, and both victims were horribly burned. Both of the baby's eyes were burned out and its body was shockingly burned, as was the body of its mother. The maniac had stabbed the child in four places and cut the mother's throat. The infant lived but a short time. Mrs. Humpf survived until 11 o'clock yesterday. Search was made for Humpf and he was tracked by bloodmarks to a room, through the ceiling of which he had knocked a hole with an axe. He was found perched on the joists with a shovel in his hands to defend himself. A wire was thrown over his leg by which he was hauled down. He died soon afterward from loss of blood, having cut his own throat.

LOYAL LEGION.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, April 15.—The military order of the Loyal Legion in congress here to-day adopted the resolution offered by General C. T. Manderson, extending to its comrade, U. S. Grant, its hearty sympathy, and expressing the hope that a speedy restoration to health may be afforded him and that his life may be spared for many years to the republic, whose existence his eminent services did so much to secure.

In the absence of Gen. W. S. Hancock, Gen. R. B. Hayes was made temporary presiding officer. Congress will resume its session to-morrow morning. It was tendered a banquet this evening by Gen. Geo. W. Smith, at his residence in this city.

A Triple Tragedy.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

ST. LOUIS, April 15.—On Sunday night in Holt county, Mo., William Clark, married, who had seduced a daughter of the widow Hardin, called at the house to make a settlement. A quarrel ensued, and Clark killed Mrs. Hardin and daughter, and wounded her son, and the next day was found dead near his house, having shot himself.

Buddenden Out on Bail.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, April 15.—In the Yorkville police court this afternoon Charles A. Buddenden, builder of the tenements in Sixty-second street, which fell on Monday, waived examination and gave bail to the amount of $30,000.

TWO OF A KIND.

Russia and England Jointly Pronounce

Prospective War a Most Desirable Result.

But the Bear Puts its Claw on Penjeh and the Lion Reluctantly Withdraws.

General Komaroff Says There is no Necessity for a Forward Movement Just Now.

THE CZAR'S REPOSE.

Russia and England Jointly Pronounce War Most Desirable.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

LONDON, April 16.—The Telegraph publishes a dispatch from Vienna which states that DeStael, at London, as follows: "I am charged by the Czar's personal command to request you to inform the English government that in the Czar's opinion war would be most deplorable to both countries, also that the Czar firmly hopes that a prompt and simple arrangement of the present difficulties may be established." Baron DeStael telegraphed DeStael in reply: "The English government has gladly accepted his communication."

A SIDE PREDICTION.

VENICE, April 16.—The impression here is that Russia is seeking to gain time only to complete preparations to march on Herat and purchase in America a few more "Alabamas." CEDING PENJEH TO RUSSIA.

LONDON, April 16.—M. Lessere, special envoy to Russia, in an interview to-day said the arrangements for the cession of Penjeh to Russia had not yet been completed, but negotiations were proceeding favorably.

NEW WAR VESSELS.

Plans are being prepared at Portsmouth for a new type of a man-of-war with one turret, carrying a 120-ton gun, also six breach and six machine guns, and with six apertures for torpedoes. If the plans are approved, the government will invite tenders directly.

ENGLAND'S HUMILIATION.

LONDON, April 16.—With reference to the report that the government would cede Penjeh to Russia the Standard says: "We cannot bring ourselves to believe that the government, even to preserve peace, will enter into any arrangement leaving Russia in possession of territory unlawfully acquired, adding additional fresh humiliation to the long list that England has already endured."

A TELEGRAM FROM KOMAROFF.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 16.—The official Messenger publishes this morning a telegram from General Komaroff, which states that the remnant of the Afghan detachment, defeated in the Kushik river engagement, had fled to Herat. The dispatch concludes with the statement that there is no necessity for a forward movement at present.

IT IS DENIED.

LONDON, April 16.—Gladstone denied the story published in the Telegraph to-day to the effect that the czar had officially expressed the opinion that war would be deplorable to both countries.

THE PENJEH DEMAND.

LONDON, April 16.—Gladstone, in the house of commons, this afternoon said the government had no reason whatever to believe that Russia had demanded Penjeh.

COXOATS.

LONDON, April 16, p. p. m.—Coxoats are 90.

Pierrepont Dead.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

ROUEN, April 16.—Edward Pierrepont, secretary of the American legation at Rouen, died to-day. He was left in charge of American affairs in Italy by ex Minister A. Lee when he returned from this country.

Hannock's Generosity.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

BERLIN, April 16.—Prince Hannock has announced that he will devote the interest of his national birthday gift, amounting to about $2,000 per annum, to establish charitable foundations for students in the university for the study of physiology.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

CORK, April 16.—While the Prince and Princess of Wales were being driven in to-day's procession, the Nationalists threw a vegetable at the royal carriage. The vegetable struck a footman. Many stones were thrown by the roughs. The crowd cheered the royal party, and the police several times fired at the roughs. No injuries were reported.

Immediately after the procession, a meeting of the Cork National League was held. The meeting declared that the fictitious demonstration of welcome in honor of the royal party had proved a failure and passed a resolution congratulating John O'Connor, who managed the hostile demonstration, for the victory he had achieved for Nationalist cause.

LONDON, April 16.—This evening the government official declared that the attempt of the Nationalists to organize an opposition at Cork had resulted in failure, and that the extent of the Loyalist's demonstration was surprising. These declarations were hardly uttered before a telegram brought the accounts of rioting in various parts of the city, and reports are becoming more alarming every hour. During the afternoon a detective arrested a rowdy who was throwing stones at the Loyalist's procession. A mob formed and attempted to rescue the prisoner. The detective fired his revolver but without hitting anyone, and succeeded in taking his prisoner to the police court where he was promptly released on bail furnished by the Mayor of Cork. Early in the evening the Nationalists held a mass meeting where inflammatory speeches were made and the latest London newspapers containing accounts of the royal progress were burned in a bonfire. After the mass meeting, the Nationalists scattered throughout the city in parties numbering from 50 to 500 men. Doors and windows were smashed, flags and decorations torn down and heaped upon blazing bonfires, and many gun stores were broken into for the purpose of arming the mob. The policemen, when encountered, singly or in small squads, were attacked and beaten unmercifully with their own clubs. In many cases the police rallied and charged desperately upon the mob, but they were invariably surrounded and repulsed. The police then resorted to a free use of their revolvers and bayonets. It was a hand-to-hand fight of the most desperate sort. The police standing back to back and receiving and inflicting terrible injuries. At midnight the streets were practically in possession of the mob. The policemen who remained uninjured could not attempt to do more than remain in their positions and fight in the defense in addition to the attacks from the crowds in the streets. The police were exposed to murderous volleys of stones from the windows of the houses and other points of vantage. The belief at midnight was that the streets could not be cleared without artillery.

LONDON, April 16.—4 a. m.—The rioting at Cork has been suppressed. Many arrests were made and the hospitals are full of wounded policemen and rioters.

A St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says that alarming rumors are circulating and there is a strong impression that further conflicts will soon be reported from the Afghan frontier as it is thought unlikely that the Afghans will allow their recent defeat to pass without seeking revenge.

He continues, "Russia makes no secret of her intention to invade Afghanistan if necessity compels her to do so. The general opinion here is that England is committing herself to a dangerous policy in forming an alliance with the Ameeer without securing absolute control."

The Post has reason to believe that the government has received unsatisfactory dispatches from St. Petersburg. Russia insists on maintaining the positions which she has already occupied, and intimates that unless England holds herself responsible for a defiance of the Ameeer in these advances, General Komaroff will advance and seize Herat. The Post also bears that the Afghans at Penjeh were surprised by the recent attack, and a ruthless massacre followed.

DISTRESS IN CHICAGO.

To get rid of the distress caused by such an intruder as rheumatism is one of the puzzles of the present age. Happily the new and popular remedy—Athiphorous—has come to the relief of this distress, and it finds its way into the homes of sufferers, not only through the drug stores, but at the hands of the medical faculty.

A correspondent while passing through Chicago, called on Dr. H. W. Joy, who is well known as one of the county physicians charged with the benevolent duty of relieving the distress of the poor. In addition to this work Dr. Joy has an extensive practice of his own. It had come to the knowledge of our correspondent that Dr. Joy was making use of Athiphorous, and had met with success in its treating rheumatism and neuralgia.

Calling on Dr. Joy at his office, corner State and Harrison streets, he found the doctor very busy with a procession of patients who were seeking relief from various ailments. Heads found the Doctor quite willing to converse on the subject, and to give Athiphorous full credit for what it had done in conquering those troublesome diseases.

Said Doctor Joy: "Within the past year I have given Athiphorous a very fair trial among sufferers by rheumatism, some of whom were old people and had been troubled with the disease for a long time. I have also used it in cases that were not of such long standing. My experience has been that it is uniformly successful, and that it surpasses all medicines I have ever seen for expelling rheumatism from the system. My first acquaintance with it was from a sample bottle which was left at the house. It occurred to me to make an experiment with this, and the experiment was so successful that I determined to make regular use of the medicine. In some cases it acts immediately, in others not so quickly, but in all cases surely. I have never yet been disappointed in it. It is not an opiate to dull pain as morphine does, but it carries away the cause of the pain, which is far better. I cannot see that it leaves any deleterious effects, as morphine and other opiates do. Sometimes after the first relief I have to administer Athiphorous again, and keep on for a while, notably in cases in which the malady is of long-standing. But in many cases I have found the cure both speedy and permanent."

"As to neuralgia, I have not had so many cases, but enough to assure me of the value of Athiphorous in overcoming it. I have the highest confidence in this medicine, and shall continue to use it. I have no hesitancy in using, in my practice, anything which I find powerful to do what I want—namely, to cure disease."

Mr. M. Tilton, who transacts business at 164 La Salle street, had been a sufferer from rheumatism, and was found at his office.

Said Mr. Tilton: "I have indeed suffered greatly with rheumatism; my sufferings extending over a long series of years. My feet and hands were distorted and my joints were extremely painful. I had tried all the remedies I knew of. Some of them did no good at all, while some gave partial and temporary relief. I at last tried the new remedy, Athiphorous, and am very free to say that this produced a rapid change. Athiphorous is the best medicine in the world. At first I was a little hampered by it, but I was not discouraged, for from the very first I felt that it was acting on me with marked effect. It continued me off all the pain of rheumatism and all the distortions and swellings. Now I am as well as ever, and am, as you see, able to attend to business regularly."

"My wife had rheumatism, and was cured by a bottle of Athiphorous. My daughter, who is a fine pianist, was troubled with rheumatic pains, which settled in the ends of her fingers, enlarging the joints and making it almost an impossibility for her to play on the piano. Half a bottle of Athiphorous was all she took. The rheumatism left her, and she was able to resume her piano practice as before."

My brother-in-law has been cured of rheumatism by it. One friend who is sceptical at first thought that Athiphorous was doing him no good. But he persevered, and soon obtained relief."

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY,
THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1885.

IT is related of the late Gen. Gordon that at a dinner in a London club one of the members jokingly accused him of secreting a bottle of wine in his pocket. Others observing that his pocket bulged out made bets that they could guess the brand and challenged him to produce the bottle. Indignation he drew from his pocket a prayer book, and said: "This little book has been my companion for years and I sincerely trust that you may find a comforter and supporter in the trials of life that will prove as true to you as this has been to me." Then he withdrew from the company, and the next day received many apologies.

THE Rev. Aaron Cleveland, the President's great-grandfather, settled in Halifax in 1750, the year after the city was founded, and established a church known as "Mother's Church," after the great New England divine of that day. He remained five years, and was succeeded by a Scotch minister. The church then became known as St. Matthew's, and was the first Presbyterian church in the British lower provinces. It is the leading church in the city to-day. Its library, established by Mr. Cleveland, still contains many volumes presented by him and bearing his autograph. There are many relatives of his still in the province.

REPRESENTATIVE BIRK, of Maine is quoted by the San Francisco Chronicle as saying: "I was admitted to the bar in California, and Judge Wallace examined me. I'll take my oath nobody was ever admitted to the bar with as simple an examination. When I went up for examination the great question of the hour was the Legal-Tender act. Everybody was discussing its constitutionality. Some said it was unconstitutional, others said it was unconstitutional. The first question Judge Wallace asked me was, 'Is the Legal-Tender act constitutional or unconstitutional?' I didn't hesitate a moment. I said simply, 'It is constitutional.' You can pass," said Judge Wallace. "We always pass a man who can settle great constitutional questions off-hand."

HOB. SANKEY RECENTLY IN INDIANAPOLIS.

The First Sunday and Sunday Meeting Held on the Indianapolis Street Corner.

I had always been interested in religious work from an early age. It was in the First M. E. church of New Castle that I was converted when a boy. While a young man I became its choir leader. Shortly after that I acted as superintendent of the Sunday school, and what took me into more active Christian work was my connection with the Young Men's Christian association. Nearly fourteen years ago a number of Pittsburg gentlemen came over to New Castle to organize, if possible, a branch of their Y. M. C. A. Among those gentlemen were H. Kirk Porter, Arthur Bell and Mr. McCreary. Among others they put me interested in the movement and now I will show you how that led to the Moody and Sankey movement. After the association was well organized it selected me delegate to the international convention of the Y. M. C. A. at Indianapolis. I went. It was there that I first met Dwight L. Moody. I took no particular part in the exercises of the convention, simply doing my share with all the rest. I remember a certain afternoon of the convention well. The subject under discussion was, "How to Reach the Masses." Having been introduced to Mr. Moody that day, he unconsciously gave me a practical illustration of how to reach the masses. Sitting near me he whispered to me to meet him on a street corner that evening. Wondering what he desired, I did so, and he told me he wanted to hold an experimental outdoor meeting with my assistance. From a neighboring store he borrowed a dry goods box upon which to stand, and there, at that street corner in Indianapolis, was held the first Moody and Sankey meeting. Quite a number of Pittsburgers and Lawrence county gentlemen aided in conducting it. They were delegates to the Y. M. C. A. Among them were John Garfield, Rev. Mr. McMullan, of New Castle; Rev. Mr. McMillan,

Slippery Rock, and I think, Attorney Jennings, of Pittsburgh.

"After the street meeting was over, Moody turned around and said to me: 'Mr. Sankey, you are the man I have been looking for these eight years.' He then asked me to enter into the evangelistic work with him at Chicago. I declined at first, on account of my home and business interests, but it was of no avail, and I subsequently entered the field with him. Since then you know what our meetings have done. We have traversed the world. Several times we have been to Great Britain, and also to France, Germany, Switzerland and the United States. There remains great work yet to be done, and our future will be as our past if health is spared us. We will continue our line of work just the same, remaining in this country for some time to come yet."

SICK HEADACHE.

Thousands who have suffered intensely with sick headache say that Hood's Sarsaparilla has completely cured them. One gentleman thus relieved writes: "Hood's Sarsaparilla is worth its weight in gold." Reader, if you are suffering with sick headache, give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. It will do you positive good. Made by C. J. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all druggists, 100 doses one dollar.

The State Board of Health.

The discovery that the bill passed by the legislature for the reorganization of the state board of health on the approved democratic plan, has no enacting clause, and is consequently inoperative, has created much comment, and democrats are considerably chagrined that the republicans still control the board. Dr. Elder will remain as secretary.

Browsing in San Jose.

Ernest A. Denick, proprietor Fredericksburg Brewing Co., San Jose, Cal., writes that for rheumatism and other painful ailments St. Jacobs Oil is a remarkably efficacious specific.

It is said that the advance orders for the revised Bible already exceed those of the revised New Testament.

The human frame is fearfully and wonderfully made. The kidneys are among the most important organs of the structure. Unless they are kept in perfect order the whole system is bound to suffer. Moshier's Herb-Bitters is the greatest of all preparations for diseases of the kidneys. Henry C. Weidley, of Newtown, Pa., was cured of a severe case of gravel, that had for a very long time defied the doctors. As a liver regulator it is unequalled.

Sound advice.—We conscientiously recommend our readers to try Salvation Oil in all cases of rheumatism. Sold by all druggists for 25 cents a bottle.

Senator Vance, of North Carolina, is said to be afflicted with a throat trouble that may develop into a fatal malady.

REPRESENTATIVE BIRK, of Maine is quoted by the San Francisco Chronicle as saying: "I was admitted to the bar in California, and Judge Wallace examined me. ACHES! PAINS!

"I aches all over!" What a common expression; and how much it means to a poor sufferer! These aches have cause, and more frequently than is generally suspected, the cause is the Liver or Kidneys. No disease is more painful or distressing than these, and no remedy is so prompt and effective as

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.

No remedy has yet been discovered that is so effective in all KIDNEY AND LIVER COMPLAINTS. MALARIA, CHOLESTEROL, ETC., etc., yet it is a sovereign remedy. Soothing and rapid in its action, it has combined with wonderful success all those herbs which nature has provided for the cure of disease. It strengthens and invigorates the whole system.

Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, the distinguished Congressman over to the House, has aches suffering from rheumatism, and kidney disease. Try Misller's Herb-Bitters. The result is glorious. I have used it in the treatment and cure of the kidneys, and it is the most valuable combination of herbs found in the market.

Major Zellinger has summoned the council to convene in special session to-night to consider the necessity of extending the Harrison street sewer. This drain was built when Mr. Ryall was city civil engineer, and extends to Water street, where a wooden drain runs to the river. This wooden box broke a day or two ago, and now it becomes necessary to build a brick sewer on Water street, from Harrison to the Maumee river east, so that the filth can run away from and not around the city.

The Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad company have issued a very attractive pamphlet describing the summer resorts of northern Michigan, and giving a large amount of valuable information concerning the magnificent lakes and forests of the northern part of this peninsula. The little book is illustrated with a large number of handsome and attractive engravings.

As the Art Age says: "In fiction, the first place may be accorded to 'The Mystery of the Locks,' by E. W. Howe. This author, by the unusual and peculiar success of his first book, 'The Story of a County Town,' has taken a foremost rank among those American writers whose works savor of the soil." It is probable that this new book, which is in many respects an improvement on its predecessor, especially as regards artistic form, will add much to his reputation. The portrayal of local characteristics is carried by Mr. Howe to a science."

Max Wolf, the assistant professor at the Princess rink, does not propose to be annoyed by the fear of falling that always takes possession of a beginner. He has invented a spring cushion. When a skater wearing one falls down suddenly, and in italics, as it were, the spring throws him right on his feet again. But the inventor made the springs so strong and when he sought a seconded spot to try it on, he sat down unexpectedly. The strong spring sent him up in the air and distributed his protuberances all over his physiognomy. He will recover unless mortification sets in.

MORTON MEN.

The Advertiser of the Indiana Politician.

File Articles of Incorporation with the County Recorder—The Promoters of the Club.

Last evening papers were filed with County Recorder Heller, incorporating the "Morton Club of Fort Wayne, Ind."

The organization is christened in honor of the Indians politician and its motto is "Literary, Scientific and Social Advancement." The word political is stricken from the original paper, which also designates the club seal shall bear a bust of the late Senator Morton. The name and its incorporators speak for the political complexion of the organization hence the word "political" was deemed superfluous.

The board of directors is composed of W. W. Worthington, Robert S. Robertson, David N. Foster, Harry C. Hanna, E. C. Rude, F. H. Bernard, G. W. Muller and W. S. Bash. The incorporators are A. H. Chapin, D. N. Foster, H. C. Hanna, G. W. Muller, F. H. Barnard, R. S. Robertson, W. S. Bash, E. C. Rude, A. H. Dougall, H. H. Robinson, A. C. Keel, Scott Swann, Robert S. Taylor, M. F. Barbour, Robert Ogden, F. L. Craw, Sol Bash, C. S. Bash, O. A. Simons. The association has no capital stock or other incumbrances that usually annoy such gatherings.
